Message

I am glad to know that the website of Ramakrishna Mission, Haflong, Assam, is set to be launched on the auspicious occasion of Rathayatra, 27 June 2025.

It is encouraging to see this new branch centre, though located in a remote corner of our country, taking meaningful steps to share its work and ideals with the wider world.

A website, in today's context, is not merely a tool for communication—it can become a window to the values we live by, the people we serve, and the message we carry.

Haflong has a long spiritual history, shaped by the devotion of earnest souls and graced by the visits of many revered monks of our Order. The centre's present work—running a Students' Home for tribal youth, offering value education, health services, and spiritual guidance—is a humble yet firm step forward in the direction Swami Vivekananda showed us: to serve, to awaken, and to realise.

I pray to Sri Ramakrishna, Holy Mother Sri Sarada Devi, and Swami Vivekananda to shower their blessings upon this venture. May the website become a source of quiet inspiration and may the Haflong Centre continue to grow steadily, with its sincere spirit of service.

My good wishes and blessings to Swami Amiteshananda and the team engaged in this work.
